

Frequently Asked Questions About Filing A Long Term Disability Claim

The following questions and answers will help you file a Long Term Disability (LTD) claim with Standard Insurance Company (The Standard). The steps outlined below will enable you to access our efficient claims services quickly and easily.

When Should I Report A Claim?

Report a claim as soon as you believe you will be absent from work beyond the benefit waiting period as defined in your policy. If you are uncertain about how long you will be absent or whether you should file a claim or not, we suggest that you file your claim. This offers you some peace of mind and allows for The Standard to begin its review and issue a timely payment if appropriate.

How Do I File A Claim?

To file a claim online, go to www.standard.com and click on “File a Claim” to begin the claim process. Instructions will be provided through the entire claim submission process.

The form can be downloaded, completed and printed. Completed forms can be mailed or faxed to The Standard using the contact information at the top of the claim packet.

A typical application for disability benefits contains the following documents:

- Employee’s Statement<sup>1</sup>
- Employer’s Statement<sup>2</sup>
- Attending Physician’s Statement (APS)
- Authorization to Obtain and Release Information

When I Report My Claim, What Information Will I Need To Provide?

---

You will be asked to provide the following information — in addition to other questions about your absence:

- Employer name
- Group Policy number
- Name and Social Security number
- Last day you were at work
- Nature of claim/medical information

What Can I Expect After I Submit The Completed Forms?

Once The Standard receives the required paperwork, which includes the Employee’s Statement, Employer’s Statement, Attending Physician’s Statement and Authorization to Obtain and Release Information, your benefits analyst will contact you to discuss any additional information that may be necessary to complete the processing of your claim and to answer any of your questions.

LTD benefit payments that are payable for retroactive claims will be paid immediately following claim approval.

Who Should I Call With Questions About My Claim?

---

If you have already filed a claim, please call The Standard's Disability Benefits toll-free number, 800.368.1135. If you are looking for general information, please contact your benefits administrator.

Who Is Responsible For Notifying My Employer Of My Absence?

It is your responsibility to follow your employer's absence reporting procedures by notifying your manager or supervisor of your absence.

What If I Have Deductible Income?

Deductible Income is other income you receive while you are receiving your LTD benefits from The Standard (i.e. state disability benefits, social security benefits, work earnings or other salary continuation benefits). To help avoid overpayment of your LTD benefit, please be sure to notify The Standard of any other income you are receiving.

If you work in a state with a state disability plan, that benefit might be your principal source of income during your disability. Please attach your state disability benefit award letter with your claim submission. This will help your claim's examiner adjudicate your claim correctly and avoid overpayments that must be returned to The Standard.

<sup>1</sup> If you file online, your submission serves as the Employee's Statement and we will instruct you on which other documents need to be completed.

<sup>2</sup> It is your responsibility to provide the Employer's Statement to your Employer to complete and submit to The Standard.
